Introduction: Chair Joe Martens called the meeting to order at 1:04 p.m. and welcomed everyone in attendance.

Joe Martens explained that the meeting was being videotaped and a link to the recording would be made available at www.orda.org.

Joe Martens then asked for a roll call, and confirmed a quorum was present. Elinor Tatum joined after the roll call, due to difficulties connecting online.

Minutes: On a motion by Art Lussi, seconded by Betty Little, the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting held on June 24, 2022 were approved without changes. Joe Zalewski abstained from voting on account of not being present at the meeting held on June 24, 2022.

Executive Committee: Joe Martens provided a report of the Executive Committee meeting held on September 14, 2022. The Executive Committee ratified the CSEA-ORDA bargaining unit contract. The new contract is a six-year contract and will make ORDA more competitive in attracting and retaining staff.

The Committee also reviewed the Proposed 2023/2024 Budget and 2022-2027 Financial Plan and Mike Pratt explained that authorization was needed to advertise the plan in accordance with the Public Authorities Law reporting requirements.

The Executive Committee made a motion authorizing publication, and recommended approval to the Board, of the Proposed 2023/2024 Budget and 2022-2027 Financial Plan.

The Committee members also discussed the 2022-2023 program of insurance and proposed Resolution #468 and the Executive Committee recommended that the Board approve the Resolution as written.

With respect to the electricity supply agreement and proposed Resolution #469, following discussion, the Committee members recommended a change to the Resolution to change "New York State goals" to "New York State renewable energy and carbon reduction targets".

This change is reflected in the Resolution that was included in the Board packets. The Executive Committee recommends that the Board approve the resolution.

President's Report: Mike Pratt discussed the social media campaign. Some of the ORDA employees have been telling their story about working with ORDA. This is being used as a way to personalize ORDA and help with recruitment efforts.

Mike Pratt reviewed some of the summer operations. At Mt. Van Hoevenberg the bobsled ride, learn to luge, and the hiking trail have been doing well.

The Olympic Jumping Complex has been doing well given the new summer surfaces now available. ORDA has been hosting multiple competitions and trainings on the largest hills.

The retail stores have been very successful and are preparing for the fall festivals at the venues.

Mike Pratt announced that the CSEA labor agreement was ratified, and the new wages were in effect.

Mike Pratt provided an update on the construction at the Olympic Center. The new restaurant in Miracle Plaza is slated to open on October 18th, and the first floor, which includes the retail store and museum, is expected to open around Thanksgiving.

Staff has moved into the new administrative building. Staff moving to the new building provides more square footage at the Miracle Plaza.

Work is continuing at the Training Center Dormitory. The next project is replacing all of the old exterior lighting. All of the improvements have been well received by the athletes.

At the Veterans' Memorial Highway contractors continue to discover significant repair needs. The project is coming along and will continue through next year.

Mike Pratt discussed the Belleayre Unit Management Plan Amendment (UMPA) process. The 42-day public comment period is complete. ORDA has compiled the comments by like topic and has drafted responses. The draft responses have been submitted to the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation for additional review, in preparing the final proposed UMPA.

Diane Munro asked for clarification on the UMPA process and if a revision will be posted that includes responses to the public comments. Mike Pratt explained that once the review process is complete, the updated UMPA and responses would be posted.

ORDA has received a lot of media attention. At the International Figure Skating event an American Figure Skater landed the first ever Quad Axel. ORDA is hosting the Dick Button Artistic Figure Skating event - Dick Button was the first competitor to ever land a double Axel. We have received a lot of news for being awarded the first to host the Ski Jumping World Cup in North America in 22 years, and in Lake Placid in 31 years.

Mike Pratt reviewed the season pass sales and ORDA is well ahead of the record sales of last year.

Mike Pratt discussed the insurance resolution and ORDA will be taking an increase of about 13% due to ORDA incorporating higher deductibles, hard market trends in the volatile insurance landscape, higher revenues projected for 2022/2023, and the increased value of ORDA's facilities due to modernization efforts.

Mike Pratt also discussed the electrical resolution and explained that ORDA needs to be nimble and react to softer market opportunities as they present themselves.

Mike Pratt discussed the Resolution for the Gondola Grips at Whiteface. The grips are inspected regularly for wear. With the supply chain challenges ORDA is being proactive so the work can be completed next summer.

The opening ceremonies of the World University Games is in 106 days. Governor Kathy Hochul recently visited Mt. Van Hoevenberg to make announcements about the games.

There has been a lot of international visitations and inspections. The Head of Delegation for the FISU World University Games recently toured all facilities being used during the Games.

Andy Lack thanked Mike Pratt, Betty Little, Art Lussi and other people who have been involved in upgrading the venues and making them successful.

Diane Munro inquired about ORDA's regional electrical grids and their ability to provide for future energy needs. Mike explained that NYSEG has recently made important upgrades at Belleayre and Whiteface to improve the quality, capacity, and reliability of available electricity. He commented that Gore's National Grid service provides the desired quantity and quality of electricity in that area as well.

Elinor Tatum asked when ORDA had last looked into other insurance broker services. Michelle Crew explained that ORDA explored broker options one year ago in cooperation with OGS. It was determined that due to the specific nature of ski area-related insurance, ORDA was best served by retaining the industry expertise of its current broker, who facilitates the competitive bidding process on ORDA's behalf.

Gender-Based Violence and the Workplace Policy Effective:

I. Introduction

The purpose of this Policy is to identify and prescribe ORDA practices that will respond effectively to employees' needs as victims of domestic and gender-based violence, and to promote safety in the workplace. This Policy is being issued in accordance with Governor's Executive Order No. 17 (EO 17), which requires that by January 1, 2023, each state agency formulate and issue a Domestic Violence and the Workplace Policy, with implementation procedures, that will strengthen New York State's procedures for addressing domestic and other forms of gender-based violence. For the purposes of EO 17, the term "state agency" or "agency" includes public authorities such as ORDA.

II. Policy Statement

Domestic violence and other forms of gender-based violence permeate the lives and harm thousands of New Yorkers each day, with tragic, destructive, and often fatal results. The impacts of such violence are felt in the workplace, regardless of where the incidents are taking place, and have the potential to compromise the safety of victims, co-workers, and clients, while resulting in lost productivity, increased health care costs, absenteeism, and employee turnover. ORDA recognizes that as an employer it has both a moral and legal obligation to its employees who may be experiencing victimization.

New York State law recognizes that domestic and gender-based violence occurs within a wide spectrum of relationships, therefore ORDA will take every appropriate measure to prevent and/or address domestic and gender-based violence as it impacts the workplace, while also recognizing the rights of victims to have self-determination and the need to respond in a survivor-centered, trauma-informed, and culturally responsive manner. All valid Orders of Protection (OP) will be enforced by ORDA, and all protections of this Policy will apply. This Policy shall apply to all ORDA employees who are victims of gender-based violence, regardless of where the incidents took place.

Under the mandates of this Policy, ORDA hereby, to the fullest extent possible and without violating any existing rules, regulations, statutory requirements, contractual obligations, or collective bargaining agreements, designates and directs appropriate management, supervisory, and/or human resources staff to implement this Gender-Based Violence and the Workplace Policy covering the following topics:

IX. Responsibilities of Managers and Supervisors

- A. All managers and supervisors shall ensure that any employee who discloses being a victim of domestic or gender-based violence is aware of this Policy and understands this Policy and their rights, including the right to request accommodations or time off as discussed below.
- B. If any employee discloses being a victim of domestic or gender-based violence, or if a supervisor suspects that their employee may be a victim of domestic or gender-based violence, the Supervisor shall refer the employee to:
 - 1. The DVAL;
 - 2. EAP;
 - 3. The NYS Domestic and Sexual Violence Hotline (or the Statewide hotline for workplace sexual harassment, as may be appropriate); and
 - 4. Any local programs serving victims of domestic and sexual violence.

There is no mandatory reporting of domestic or gender-based violence, unless it may constitute sexual harassment as defined under the terms of this Policy and the Equal Employment Opportunity in New York Rights and Responsibilities Handbook, which ORDA has adopted as its policy on Equal Employment Opportunity.

X. Non-discrimination and Responsive Personnel Policies

In accordance with applicable law and policy, ORDA's policies and procedures will endeavor to be trauma-informed, survivor-centered, and culturally responsive to victims' needs, and will not discriminate. Under the New York State Human Rights Law (Executive Law § 292 [22]) victims of domestic violence are a protected class, and all persons covered by this Policy are protected from discrimination in the workplace on the basis of status as a victim of domestic violence, and on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression.

- A. ORDA will not refuse to hire or license and may not terminate someone solely based on their status as a victim of domestic violence.
- B. ORDA will not discriminate against victims of domestic violence in compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

- C. ORDA prohibits inquiries about an applicant's status as a current or past victim of domestic violence and will not make any employment decisions based on assumptions or actual knowledge about someone's status as a current or past victim of domestic violence. ORDA may inquire about status as a victim of domestic violence in order to provide reasonable accommodations.
- D. ORDA will allow any employee who has disclosed their status as a victim of domestic or gender-based violence (or disclosed that a family member is a victim of domestic or gender-based violence) and who must be out of work for a reasonable time to use accrued sick leave² for the following purposes:
1. To obtain services from a domestic violence shelter, rape crisis center, or other services program;
 2. To participate in safety planning, temporarily or permanently relocate, or take other actions to increase the safety of the employee or employee's family members;
 3. To meet with an attorney or other social services provider to obtain information and advice on, and prepare for or participate in any criminal or civil proceeding;
 4. To file a complaint or domestic incident report with law enforcement;
 5. To meet with a district attorney's office;
 6. To enroll children in a new school;
 7. To address issues relating to technology or financial abuse; or
 8. To take any other actions necessary to ensure the health or safety of the employee or the employee's family member or to protect those who associate or work with the employee including the attendance of court or administrative proceedings.
- E. Employees can choose to use appropriate leave accruals to cover any absences, if available. If the employee does not have adequate leave accruals to cover the absence or chooses not to charge leave accruals, the absence shall be treated as leave without pay. In certain qualifying circumstances, employees who are victims of domestic violence may be eligible for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act and/or a Reasonable Accommodation pursuant to the NYS Human Rights Law. Questions regarding leave for victims or subpoenaed witnesses should be directed to the ORDA DVAL.
- F. Any employee who must be absent from work to utilize accommodations in this section is entitled to the continuation of any health insurance coverage provided by ORDA to which the employee is otherwise entitled during any such absence, in accordance with any existing collective bargaining agreements, regulations, and ORDA policy.
- G. Employees who must be absent to utilize accommodations as listed in this section shall provide ORDA with reasonable advanced notice of the absence whenever possible. Such notice should be provided to the employee's immediate supervisor and to the appropriate Human Resources staff.

- H. ORDA will also grant time off, with one prior day of notification, and will not penalize any employee who, as a victim or witness of a criminal offense, is: appearing as a witness; consulting with a district attorney; or exercising their rights as provided by law.³
- I. ORDA recognizes that there may be occurrences when an employee is absent due to incidents of domestic or gender-based violence where they are unable to follow agency protocol to report the absence. In that situation, the employee may lack documentation, may be unable to obtain documentation or may not want to share documentation containing confidential information. ORDA will not require the disclosure of confidential information relating to an absence from work due to domestic violence, a sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking, as a condition of providing sick leave.
- J. An employee who is a victim of domestic violence or gender-based violence who separates from a covered family member due to an incident or incidents of domestic or gender-based violence will be allowed to make reasonable changes in benefits at any time during the calendar year, where possible and in accordance with statute, regulation, contract, and ORDA policy.
- K. ORDA recognizes that victims of domestic and gender-based violence may experience temporary work performance difficulties or be unable to complete certain job aspects because of safety reasons (examples include overnight travel, "off" hour shifts, etc.). If it is found that an employee's work performance is being affected as a result of being a victim of domestic or gender-based violence, ORDA will work with the employee to try to create a satisfactory resolution, including, but not limited to, specific work plans, the ability to take leave, provision of reasonable accommodations, referrals to the DVAL, EAP, and/or the local domestic violence service provider. OPDV is available for case-specific technical assistance as needed. Employees will be given clear information regarding performance expectations, priorities, and performance evaluations. Employees should be aware that not all employee requests for resolutions can be accommodated. If a disciplinary process is initiated, special care will be taken to consider all aspects of the victimized employee's situation, and all available options will be explored in trying to resolve the performance problems including making a referral to the DVAL, EAP, domestic violence program or other relevant services, consistent with existing collective bargaining unit agreements, statute, regulations, and ORDA policy.
- L. If all reasonable measures have been exhausted to resolve related performance problems of an employee who is a victim of domestic or gender-based violence, but the performance problems persist and the employee is terminated or voluntarily separates from employment, ORDA will inform the employee of their potential eligibility for unemployment insurance and ORDA will respond quickly to any requests for information that may be needed in the claims process. New York State law provides that a victim of domestic violence who voluntarily separates from employment may, under certain circumstances, be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.⁴

⁴ NYS Labor Law § 593 (1) (b) (i)

- M. New York State law prohibits insurance companies and health maintenance organizations from discriminating against domestic violence victims by prohibiting status as a domestic violence victim to be considered a “pre-existing condition.” Insurance companies may not deny or cancel an insurance policy or require a higher premium or payment because the insured party is a current or former victim of domestic violence.⁵
- N. Sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression are all protected classes under the New York State Human Rights Law. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and is unlawful under the New York State Human Rights Law § 296.1, Human Rights Law § 296-c (for interns), Human Rights Law § 296-d (for non-employees working in the workplace), and Title VII, the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964. Gender-based violence may constitute sexual harassment when it subjects an individual to inferior terms, conditions, or privileges of employment. ORDA’s sexual harassment and discrimination policy may be found in each employee’s Workbright account and at <https://orda.org/about-us/policies/>.
- O. For all forms of discrimination and harassment, if an employee, including an intern or contractor working in at an ORDA venue or other workplace, experiences sexual harassment or discrimination on the basis of their status as a victim of domestic or other gender-based violence, or observes discrimination in the workplace, the employee may file a complaint at <https://oer.ny.gov/anti-discrimination-investigations> either directly or by contacting ORDA’s Office of Human Resources, or by filling out the complaint form found at <https://orda.org/about-us/policies/>.
- P. Any complaint of potential discrimination, whether verbal or written, will be investigated. Furthermore, ORDA requires that any supervisory or managerial employee who observes or otherwise becomes aware of conduct of a sexually harassing nature report such conduct so that it can be investigated. ORDA will maintain the confidentiality of the complainant to the extent practical.

XI. Non-Retaliation Policy

- A. ORDA will not engage in any retaliatory practices against any employee who discloses that they are a victim of domestic or gender-based violence, or any employee seeking accommodations or to exercise their rights under this Policy.
- B. In accordance with ORDA policies and procedures, ORDA will not retaliate against, tolerate retaliation by any supervisor or manager, terminate, or discipline any employee for reporting information about alleged incidents of domestic violence that may have been committed by an employee, including those in management positions.
- C. Retaliatory practices may include, but are not limited to, fewer promotions, inappropriate jokes, snide comments, excluding a victimized employee from conversations, etc., and may be carried out by anyone, not just the original perpetrator. Retaliation includes commencing discipline against a victimized employee for actions taken to promote their safety.

⁵ NYS Insurance Law § 2612

- D. Any employee engaging in retaliatory practices may be subject to disciplinary actions. If you believe you have been subject to retaliatory practices, please see Section XVI: Violations of this Policy.

In the event of an emergency or that the OP needs to be presented to law enforcement, the DVAL or designated Human Resources staff member, or a member of ORDA executive staff shall retrieve and present the OP.
- D. Any modification or revocation of the OP should be provided to the DVAL immediately, and the DVAL shall assure that relevant Human Resources and/or executive staff are aware of such modification or revocation.
- E. When requested by the victimized employee, the DVAL and/or designated Human Resources staff will work with the employee to develop a plan for best increasing safety for the victimized employee, other employees, and the ORDA Venue or other workplace. Options may include, but are not limited to:
 - 1. Providing front desk security or reception staff with a copy of the OP with a photo of the perpetrator;
 - 2. Protocols for reporting to law enforcement;
 - 3. Allowing the employee to work staggered hours, an "off shift", or move to a different work location, either temporarily or permanently;
 - 4. Temporary reassignment of certain duties, such as overnight travel;
 - 5. Reassignment of parking space;

 10. Creating a personalized safety plan in consultation with the local domestic or sexual violence program;
 11. Allowing the employee to work from an alternate work station until further action is taken, if the employee works directly with the perpetrator; or
 12. If an OP is in place and has been violated (i.e. by perpetrator showing up at workplace of victim), requiring the reporting of the violation to law enforcement.
- F. If the circumstances indicate a need for ORDA to take steps to increase safety for the victim, other employees, and the Venue, Agency should follow their Workplace Violence Policy.

If ORDA has found that an employee has committed any act of gender-based violence, including making threats or harassment at or from the workplace, or using any ORDA or State resources such as work time, ORDA or State owned telephones or cell phones, e-mail, or by any other means, the employee's Supervisor, in conjunction with the Director of Human Resources, shall take any and all steps necessary to hold the employee accountable through administrative and/or disciplinary action in accordance with existing ORDA policy, applicable collective bargaining agreements, applicable statutes and/or regulations. BACKGROUND CHECK POLICY

I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

In making employment decision, the Olympic Regional Development Authority (“ORDA”) is committed to the highest standards for its employees, and to complying with all applicable Federal and State statutes and regulations, as well as other applicable requirements. Accordingly, all applicants for employment with ORDA will be subject to a background check in accordance with the terms of this Policy. The information collected through a background check process is necessary to determine an applicant’s overall fitness for employment, to promote a safe work environment for other ORDA employees, and to ensure the safety of the visiting public and the many athletes who utilize ORDA venues for training and competition. It will also help to assure the protection of ORDA property, proprietary information, and other assets.

In addition, due in part to insurance requirements applicable to ORDA, and due in part to the requirements of the Safe Sport Authorization Act (Protecting Young Victims from Sexual Abuse and Safe Sport Authorization Act of 2017, 36 U.S.C. § 22051) and ORDA’s relationship with the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee, those ORDA staff who are employed in specific titles as is further detailed herein, will be subject to ongoing background check requirements during the terms of their employment. Information derived from these ongoing background check requirements will be used by ORDA to determine the ongoing fitness of employees for the duties of the titles they occupy.

ORDA will conduct all employment background checks in accordance with the terms of this Policy. ORDA’s use of the information gained through a background check will at all times comply with New York State’s Fair Credit Reporting Act (N.Y. GEN. BUS. LAW § 380), the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681), and all other applicable laws, statutes, rules, and regulations including, but not limited to, New York State Correction Law Article 23-a. Should any provision of this Policy conflict with any applicable law or regulation, that provision will be considered void and all other provisions of this Policy shall remain in full force and effect.

II. ACRONYMS AND DEFINITIONS

Candidate – shall mean any person who has applied for or is being considered for a full-time, part-time, or temporary/seasonal position identified in Categories 1, 2, or 3, as defined herein, as well as any current ORDA employee holding the positions and/or titles identified in Category 2 or Category 3 and who are subject to ongoing background checks.

Covered Position – shall mean any position and/or title identified in Categories 1, 2 and 3.

ORDA – shall mean the Olympic Regional Development Authority or authorized representative of the Olympic Regional Development Authority.

Report – shall mean the results of a background check provided to ORDA by a TPA.

This legislation, also known as S.534, designates the Center to serve as the independent national safe sport organization, with the additional responsibility for the Center to develop national policies and procedures to prevent the emotional, physical, and sexual abuse of amateur athletes. Through this legislation, the Center has the exclusive authority to respond to allegations of sexual abuse and sexual misconduct within the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Movement. It also allows the Center to have discretionary jurisdiction on a case-by-case basis over any other forms of misconduct, including bullying, harassment, and physical and emotional abuse. As a USOPC Training Center, ORDA is not under the jurisdiction of the Center, but ORDA is committed to the purpose and intent of SafeSport and consistent with its agreement with the USOPC, ORDA will implement the requirements of SafeSport to the extent that such requirements do not conflict with New York State law.

Should your background check reveal information that could result in a decision by ORDA to withdraw an offer of employment, you will be provided with a Pre-Adverse Action Notice that includes the contact information of the Third Party Administrator, a copy of the background report and a "Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act". You will have ten (10) business days from the date of your receipt of the Pre-Adverse Action Notice to dispute the information contained in the background report by contacting the Third Party Administrator and providing correct information regarding your criminal history, credit history, and/or SafeSport disciplinary record. Extensions may be provided to you at the sole discretion of ORDA. It will be the responsibility of both the Candidate and the Department Head or Venue Management, as applicable, to assure that the Candidate completes and submits the Authorization & Consent Form in a timely manner. If a Candidate refuses to authorize a background check, or the TPA is unable to obtain written authorization within seven (7) business days of the date of a written request for authorization, the Candidate shall be deemed to have withdrawn his/her name from consideration and action will be taken to remove the Candidate from the Covered Position, whether by termination or by changing their job responsibilities.

county courts where a Candidate has lived, worked, or was educated, in the past seven (7) years.

iii. Nation Wide – Search of multi-jurisdictional database compiled from state and county criminal record databases. Sources include court records, incarceration records, prison/inmate records, probation/parole/release information, arrest data, sex offender registries, and wants and warrants.

b. Supplemental Background Checks. A supplemental off-year background check will be conducted for any Candidate who works in a title that is identified in this Policy as a Category 3 Covered Position. Supplemental background checks will be conducted using at least the following search components:

1. Nation Wide – Search of multi-jurisdictional database compiled from state and county criminal record databases. Sources include court records, incarceration records, prison/inmate records, probation/parole/release information, arrest data, sex offender registries, and wants and warrants.
2. SafeSport Disciplinary Records – any Negative Information received from a search of SafeSport disciplinary records will be treated in a manner that is consistent with New York Law, including Article 23-a, together with the terms and conditions of this Policy.

c. Credit History Checks. Credit history checks provide a snapshot of financial history, including information regarding delinquent accounts, accounts sent to collection, maximum credit limits available, court judgments, bankruptcies, and liens. This check will be conducted on Candidates for Covered Positions that have the fiduciary responsibilities set forth in this Policy.

5.4 Authorized Third Party Administrator

ORDA, in its sole discretion, will select a USOPC authorized TPA that will be a full-service screening organization that works in accordance with the recommended guidelines established by the USOPC, the terms and conditions of this Policy, and all applicable State and Federal laws.

5.5 Adverse Action

In accordance with Section 603 of the FCRA, the term “adverse action” includes all employment actions affecting a Candidate that can be considered to have a “negative impact” as that term is defined under Section 603 (k) of the FCRA. For the purposes of this Policy, a negative impact will mean the withdrawal of an offer of employment, the denial of a promotion, or a determination to terminate employment or to change an ORDA employee’s job position or responsibilities, as the result of a background check that yields Negative Information.

For any adverse action that is taken based at least in part on information contained in a Report, in accordance with Section 615 (a) of the FCRA, the Candidate will be notified by the Office of Human Resources in writing. Any such notification will be provided utilizing the process set forth below:

a. Evaluation of Background Check Results

1. In accordance with Article 23-a, ORDA will not deny or terminate employment on the basis of prior criminal convictions, except under the following circumstances:
 - i. A direct relationship between some or all of the previous criminal offenses and the specific job or position the Candidate is seeking or holds;
 - ii. When hiring or continuing to employ the individual would present an unreasonable risk to ORDA's property, specific individuals, or the general public.
2. Where an adverse action is contemplated due to the disclosure of a criminal conviction, negative credit report, and/or SafeSport disciplinary record, ORDA will consider:
 - i. That the public policy of this State, as expressed in Article 23-a, is to encourage the licensure and employment of persons previously convicted of one or more criminal offenses;
 - ii. The specific duties and responsibilities necessarily related to the license or employment sought or held by the person; The bearing, if any, that the criminal offense or offenses for which the person was previously convicted will have on his or her fitness or ability to perform one or more such duties or responsibilities; The time which has elapsed since the occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses; The age of the person at the time of occurrence of the criminal offense or offenses; The seriousness of the offense or offenses; Any information produced by the person, or produced on his or her behalf, in regard to his or her rehabilitation and good conduct; ORDA's legitimate interest in protecting property, and the safety and welfare of specific individuals, ORDA's employees and volunteers, or the general public.
3. Should the Office of Human Resources determine that the information contained in a Report reflects that hiring or promoting the Candidate could negatively impact ORDA's interests, the Office of Human Resources will promptly notify Venue Management for the Covered Position and ORDA's Office of General Counsel, whereby a determination will be made as to whether an adverse action is warranted.
4. Should the background check yield a Report that contains no Negative Information, the Candidate will be so notified in writing by the Office of Human Resources.

b. Pre-Adverse Action Notice

1. If an adverse action is contemplated, the Office of Human Resources will issue by certified mail, return receipt requested, a written Pre-Adverse Action Notice (attached as Exhibit A) to the Candidate along with: (1) a copy of the Report; (2) contact information for the TPA including name, address, and telephone number; and (3) the “Summary of Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act” (attached as Exhibit B).
2. The Candidate will be given ten (10) business days from the date of receipt of the Pre-Adverse Action Notice to dispute information contained in the Report that led to the negative determination by contacting the TPA and providing correct information regarding their criminal history, credit history, and/or SafeSport disciplinary record, including evidence that they did not commit the offense (e.g., in the case of misidentification), evidence of rehabilitation or character, the length of time since the last criminal conviction, other factors relevant to the negative determination, and other extenuating circumstances, including but not limited to disparate legal and enforcement practices. Extensions may be provided to the Candidate at the sole discretion of ORDA. Should a Candidate fail to either provide a response within ten (10) business days of the date of receipt of the Pre-Adverse Action Notice, or to request an extension of time to respond, ORDA shall inform the Candidate that his/her name has been withdrawn from consideration and/or take action to remove the Candidate from the Covered Position, whether by termination or by changing their job responsibilities. Any such action is within ORDA’s sole discretion and the Candidate shall have no right to appeal or challenge such action by ORDA.
3. Upon receipt of any corrected Report, the Office of Human Resources, ORDA’s Office of General Counsel, and Venue Management will discuss the information contained in the Report and make a determination in accordance with Article 23-a and other applicable laws, including FCRA and SafeSport. Said determination will be made within five (5) business days from the date the Office of Human Resources received the corrected Report from the TPA. Any such action is within ORDA’s sole discretion and the Candidate shall have no right to appeal or challenge such action by ORDA.
4. Should the background check yield a Report that contains no Negative Information, the Candidate will be so notified in writing by the Office of Human Resources.

c. Adverse Action Notice

If ORDA determines to take adverse action based in whole or in part on information contained in the Report, the Office of Human Resources will issue by certified mail, return receipt requested, a written Adverse Action Notice to the Candidate that includes: (1) a description of the adverse action being taken (e.g., rejection of the application) and that the action has been taken based in whole or in part on information contained in the Report; (2) a statement that the TPA did not make the decision to take adverse action and is unable to provide the reason for such decision; and (3) the rights of the Candidate to obtain a free copy of the Report from the TPA and to dispute information contained in the Report with the TPA. Any such action is within ORDA's sole discretion and the Candidate shall have no right to appeal or challenge such action by ORDA.

5.6 Protection of Personal Information

In accordance with the requirements of Public Officers Law § 87 (2), Public Officers Law §§ 9199, and the FCRA, all information collected through the background check process will be used solely for employment considerations and will be kept strictly confidential and protected against unauthorized access, use, and disclosure.

5.7 Record-Keeping

- a. The Report will be maintained by the Office of Human Resources and kept for a period of four (4) years from the date the Report was completed.
- b. At the expiration of the four (4) years, the Report will be deleted from the Office of Human Resources database/information system and all paper copies, if any, will be destroyed.

VI. VIOLATIONS

Violations of this Policy by Candidate, including the provision of false or fraudulent information, will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. Any violation may also be subject to prosecution under applicable federal, state or local law.

VII. POLICY REVIEW

This Policy will be reviewed and updated on an annual basis.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - o a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - o you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - o your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - o you are on public assistance;
 - o you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

- You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.
- As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

- A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore .

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

(a) ORDA’s Relationship with New York State Government

New York State Olympic Regional Development Authority (“ORDA”) was created under Title 28 of the Public Authorities Law as a public benefit corporation on June 10, 1981 to operate, manage and maintain the Olympic facilities in and around Lake Placid, New York. ORDA assumed operation of the facilities at Whiteface Mountain Ski Center and Memorial Highway and the Mount Van Hoevenberg Recreation Area on October 4, 1982 under an agreement with the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (“DEC”). ORDA assumed operation of the arena complex, the speed skating oval and the Interval Ski Jump complex on October 13, 1982 under agreement with the Town of North Elba, as trustee for the Town of North Elba Public Parks and Playground District. On April 1, 1984, ORDA entered into an agreement with DEC to operate, manage and maintain Gore Mountain Ski Center. On April 1, 2012, ORDA assumed management responsibility of Belleayre Ski Area in Highmount, New York. Belleayre was previously managed by DEC.

ORDA’s operations are overseen by a Board of Directors (“Board”). ORDA’s Board consists of the Commissioner of Environmental Conservation, the Commissioner of Empire State Development, the Commissioner of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation and nine members appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. ORDA receives an annual operating appropriation from the general fund based on projected needs. Income of ORDA is exempt from taxation.

ORDA’s legislative mandate is to:

1. Institute a comprehensive, coordinated program of activities utilizing the Olympic facilities in and around Lake Placid, Gore Mountain Ski Center in North Creek, and Belleayre Mountain Ski Center in Highmount, in order to ensure optimum year-round use and enjoyment of these facilities to the economic and social benefit of the regions and to minimize the financial burden on state and local government by maximizing revenue opportunities.
2. Improve the physical fitness and recreational education of the people of New York and the United States.
3. Develop, implement and supervise a comprehensive, coordinated program for the management, promotion and scheduling of a wide range of national and international athletic training and competitive opportunities that maximize the utilization of the Olympic facilities.
4. Develop, construct, operate, manage and maintain facilities for the training and housing of amateur athletes in connection with the United States Olympic Committee’s training center program and ORDA’s conduct of national and international sports events.

(b) Budget Process

The creation of the 2023/2024 operational budget was especially challenging due to the continued pandemic and many other uncertainties including but not limited to rising fuel cost, supply chain issues and labor shortages.

During the summer of 2022 ORDA’s President & CEO, along with the Director of Finance, reviewed previous years’ actual revenue and expenses to project the next fiscal year’s budget.

Consideration was also made from input by the Director of Human Resources, for projected payroll and payroll added costs based on current and projected staffing levels.

Generally, in October of each year, the Division of the Budget (“DOB”) issues a letter (the “call letter”) to ORDA’s President & CEO requesting ORDA’s budget submission for the upcoming fiscal year. The call letter specifies budget directives and the filing due date. As a public benefit corporation of the State, ORDA's fiscal year aligns with the State and the data presented is in accordance with the guidelines provided by the DOB.

The budget process will end with an appropriation request to the Director of the Budget on the prescribed date of the call letter and then uploading the proposed 2023/2024 budget to the Public Authorities Reporting Information System at the end of the calendar year.

The Proposed 2023/2024 Budget and 2022-2027 Financial Plan relies on data and projections developed through the following timeframe:

- During July/August – develop preliminary budget forecasts, including revenue and expenses, preliminary operations and maintenance, and capital expense targets.
- During September – Review ORDA's Proposed Budget and Financial Plan with the Executive Committee.
- During September/October – make ORDA's Proposed Budget and Financial Plan available for public inspection at five convenient locations and on ORDA's website.
- During November/December – seek authorization from ORDA's Board of Directors to approve the Final Budget and Financial Plan; submit the information to the State Comptroller's Office; and make the approved document available for public inspection at five convenient locations and on ORDA's website.

(c) Budget Assumptions

ORDA Revenue and Expenses

ORDA generates approximately 70% of its revenue from its operations, with the other 30% coming from New York State operating appropriations combined with funds from the Town of North Elba. Operational revenue is extremely hard to forecast as so much of it is dependent upon the weather and economy.

The projected staffing level is determined by evaluating the employee headcount during the current fiscal year and forecasting future headcounts based upon anticipated organizational needs. Payroll added costs are also projected based on the headcount. The impact of the pandemic was taken into consideration.

The basis of the budget is presented on an accrual basis.

Investment Income

Investment of ORDA's funds is administered in accordance with ORDA's investment guidelines. These guidelines comply with the New York State Comptroller's investment guidelines for public authorities and were adopted pursuant to Section 2925 of the New York Public Authorities Law.

(d) Self-Assessment of Budgetary Risks

Set forth below is a summary of certain risks associated with ORDA's assets and operations. The following discussion of risks is intended only as a partial list and does not purport to identify all of the risk factors that may affect ORDA's assets and operations. Any one or more of the factors discussed and others could adversely affect ORDA's operations, assets, revenues and expenses to an extent that cannot be determined at this time.

- Climate Change – As part of the Climate Leadership and Community Protection Act initiatives, ORDA engages in regular vulnerability assessments to identify climate change-related risks to its assets and services. The climate change vulnerability assessment is meant to be an initial qualitative assessment of climate change impacts to ORDA's assets, operations, and overall mission. Recognizing the effects that climate change has had and will continue to have on the Northeast's winter recreation and its core assets, ORDA has incorporated climate change into its decision-making at the operational, planning, and executive levels. Through its budget planning, ORDA has invested in high-efficiency snowmaking, hybrid maintenance equipment, dedicated solar arrays, modernized building systems, updated refrigeration for ice rinks and electric car charging stations. ORDA has adapted some of its existing infrastructure and equipment to offer more year-round activities, maximize venue use, support regional tourism, and advance economic development efforts in surrounding areas.

- Other Business Risks

- Industry Transformation – Through its strategic planning and risk management processes, ORDA regularly evaluates its mission, objectives, and customer needs and seeks to appropriately position ORDA to effectively meet the challenges of the transforming winter sport and tourism industry through implementation of initiatives such as long-term asset management strategy and a suite of customer solutions including new/modified facilities, technology, and product offerings. The impact on ORDA operations of any such industry transformation is not presently predictable.
Workforce – Like many other industries, the winter sport and tourism sector is realizing increased competition for, and a general shortage of talent in high skilled areas. This trend is expected to continue and be further impacted by transformations in the industry where new technologies are being developed and deployed. ORDA recognizes the uncertainty associated with attracting and retaining staff with the skills and competencies needed to meet stated objectives and regularly evaluates and positions its recruiting, talent development, and benefits programs accordingly.
- Physical and Cyber Security – ORDA constantly assesses the nature of the physical and cyber security risks and adjusts its resources to best anticipate and respond to any threats. Investments to harden both physical and cyber assets and their related infrastructure are continually needed to minimize potential adverse impacts to protect ORDA and customer information.
- Catastrophic Natural Events – A catastrophic natural event such as severe weather or flooding can negatively affect the operability of ORDA assets and facilities. ORDA regularly evaluates the resiliency of its assets and facilities. In addition, ORDA annually develops and implements disaster planning programs through its Emergency Management and Operations Plan. This plan is based on the specific, unique natural threats at each of its facilities. ORDA regularly conducts drills and exercises in order to ensure advance preparation for these types of events. ORDA maintains close working relationships with local first responders and government agencies to ensure its ongoing preparedness.
- Occupational Health and Workforce Safety – ORDA and its employees are exposed to a variety of health and safety risks. The health and safety of ORDA's workforce, customers, and contractors is of the highest priority to ORDA. ORDA has put in place multiple levels of controls, policies, procedures, and training programs in support of reducing and/or eliminating health and safety incidents. The impacts of the pandemic on ORDA's operations and financial condition is not presently predictable or quantifiable. To mitigate these risks, ORDA works closely with the Department of Health and other local and county health departments to ensure its ongoing preparedness and responsiveness.
- Litigation Risk – Actions or claims against ORDA include those arising out of negligence, personal injury, breach of contract, employment and other matters. Pursuant to Public Authorities Law § 2622 (4), all actions or claims against ORDA to recover damages for injuries to property or for personal injury arising out of the operation of its facilities is exclusive to the New York State Court of Claims. Payment of awards or judgments for such claims are made by the State of New York in accordance with section 20 of the Court of Claims Act. All other claims will, in the opinion of ORDA, and through representation by outside counsel hired by ORDA, be disposed of within the amounts of ORDA's insurance coverage, where applicable, or the amount which ORDA has available therefore and without any material adverse effect on the business of ORDA.

- Regulatory Risks – Congressional and regulatory action for the increased regulation of air, water and contaminants is periodically considered, and there are potential legislative and regulatory proposals which may affect ORDA in the future. The impact on ORDA operations of any such proposals is not presently predictable or quantifiable.

The 2021/2022 fiscal year was one of the most successful years in history. ORDA grew revenue, made smart investments in its facilities, developed new businesses opportunities, and paid off its debts. The pandemic, as well as labor and supply chain shortages, presented several challenges to these successes. However, the excellence of the ORDA staff made the organization's record-breaking accomplishments possible.

ORDA continues to seek revenue streams that are favorable to the bottom line. ORDA continues to monitor operating expenses to manage cash outflows. ORDA has invested in solar arrays at both Gore Mountain and Whiteface Mountain, delivering clean energy that offsets the resorts' electric needs. ORDA has made a strong commitment to modernizing the snowmaking fleets with high-efficiency guns, system monitoring, motors with variable drives, and new energy-saving technologies. This means ORDA is making more snow in less time, using less energy. ORDA has invested in reloadable RFID technology and a robust e-commerce platform. This allows guests hassle-free ticketing in advance online, with no waste. The RFID media lasts for years, offering convenient direct-to-lift access winter after winter. New improvements at the facilities have allowed ORDA to expand year-round operations, thereby extending its revenue opportunities.
